THE GENESIS

2020 JCI NIGERIA SOUTHWEST COLLEGIATE PROGRESSIVE REPORT

FIRST QUARTER (JANUARY TO MARCH)

The Genesis

The JCI Nigeria Southwest Collegiate Team is committed to serve and act as a bridge between the national organization and the southwest collegiate members, proffering social welfare, organizational and individual development to the members of JCI Nigeria Collegiate Structure (Southwest) through focusing on human capacity development and enacting valuable programs and projects to improve the standard of the structure and heighten the values of the organization. It has been a worthy three months, Eleven weeks and Eighty-nine days of saddling the affairs of the JCI Nigeria Southwest Collegiate, supervising 36 Local Organizations across six states in the southwest and ensuring the mission and vision of JCI is spread in each Local Organization coupled with offering an idea of vista representation.

Officers Training School

The Southwest Officers Training School and Area Council of Presidents Meeting was held on the 10th to 12th of January 2020 at Osogbo, Osun State.

The event which had in attendance Presidents and delegates across 20 Local Organizations in southwest participated in series of activities which includes; Training, Go green, Peace is Possible Campaign and briefing by the National President on the 2020 JCI Nigeria Plan of Action.

Programs and Projects

Local Organizations are tasked with taking actions to implement sustainable changes in their immediate environment. Actions taken by some Local Organizations across the Southwest Collegiate between the month of January to March includes;

Matriculation Awareness JCIN Federal Polytechnic Ado Ekiti

Freshers Sensitization
JCIN YABATECH

One child One Book Project
JCIN Cohealth Offa

Media

The JCI Nigeria Southwest Collegiate now has social media platforms aimed at consolidating on the effort of the National Organization in projecting the image, impact and positive works of the organization. Our effort is not only limited to creating social media handles but also feeding it with valuable contents which in turn accelerate the engagements on these platforms. We also encouraged local organizations in Southwest to project the work of their impact out there.

The JCI Nigeria Southwest Collegiate Entrepreneurship and Employability Workshop tagged Heading for the Future was held on the 14th of March 2020 at the JCI Nigeria secretariat, Ikeja Lagos state. The workshop was designed to prepare members of the southwest collegiate for the future.

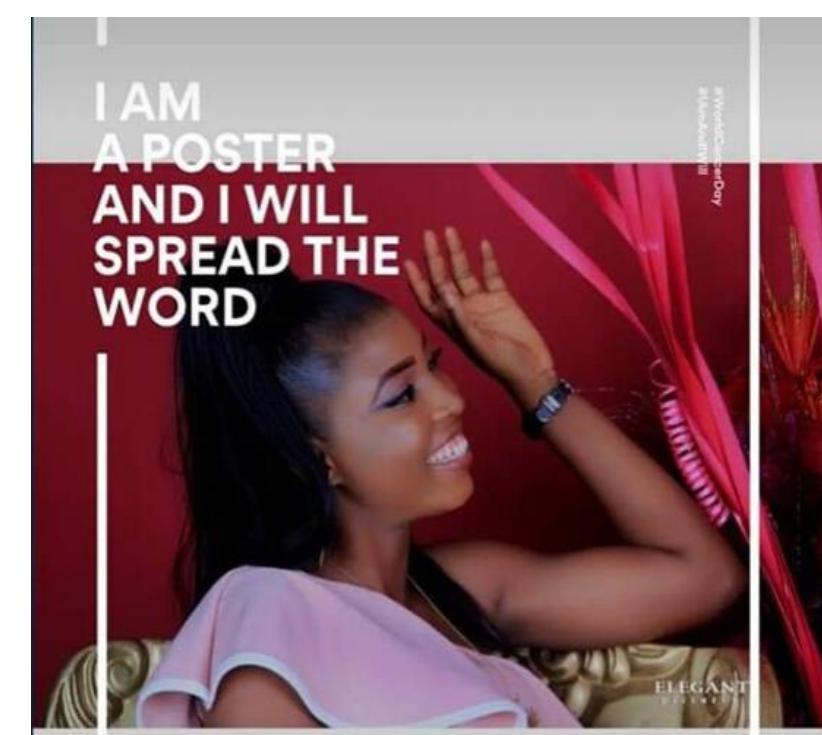

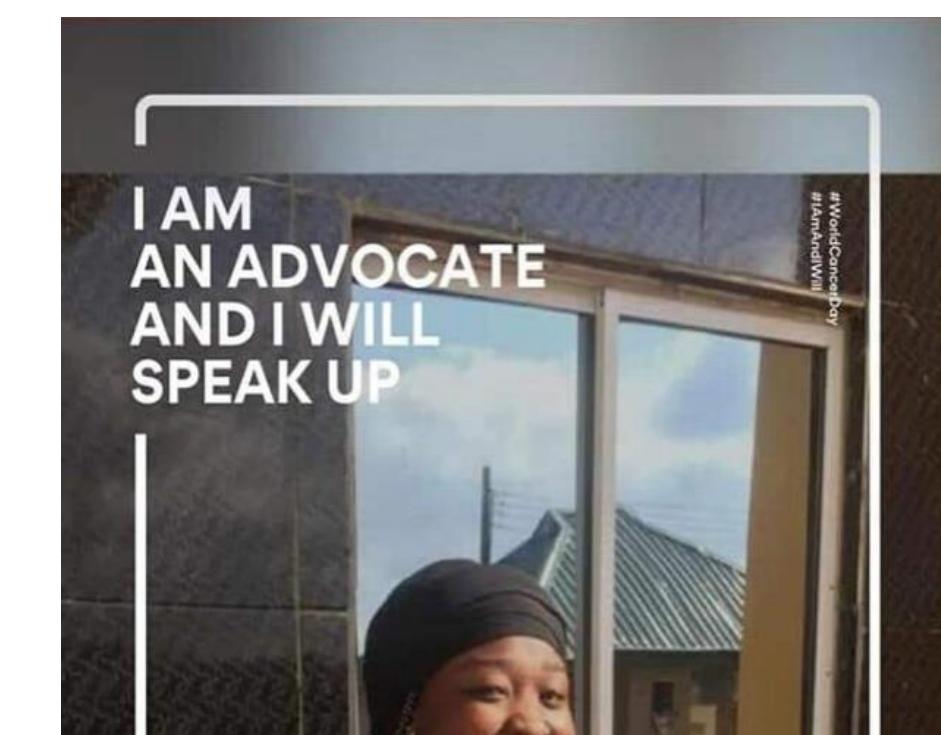

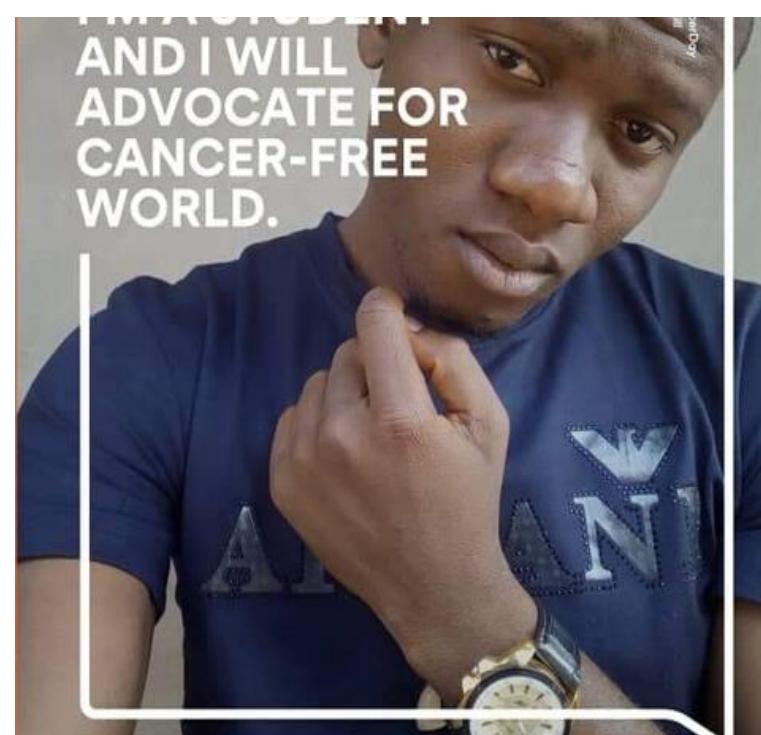

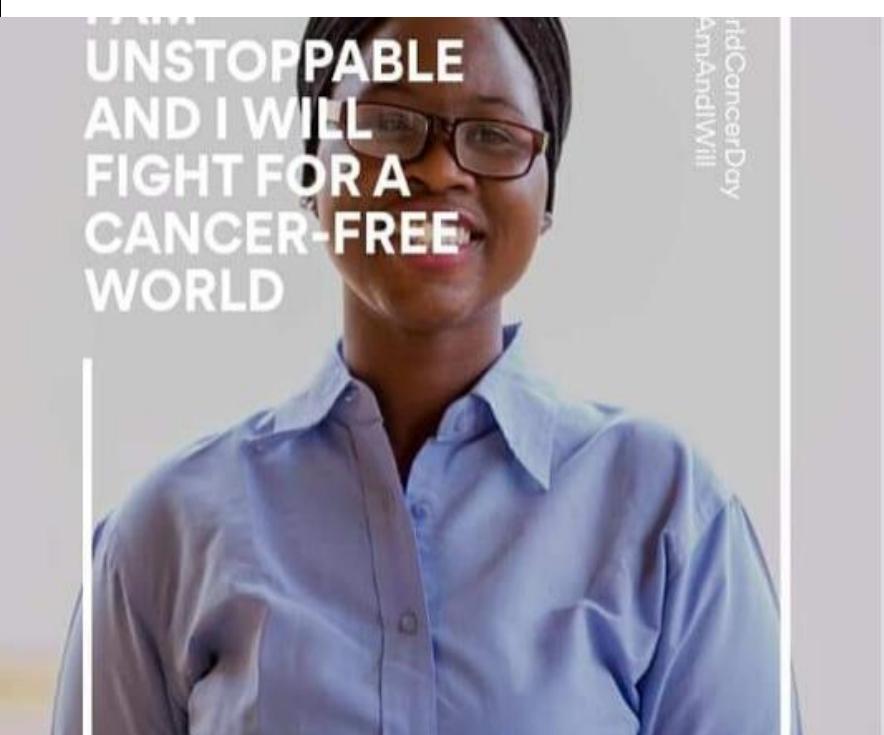

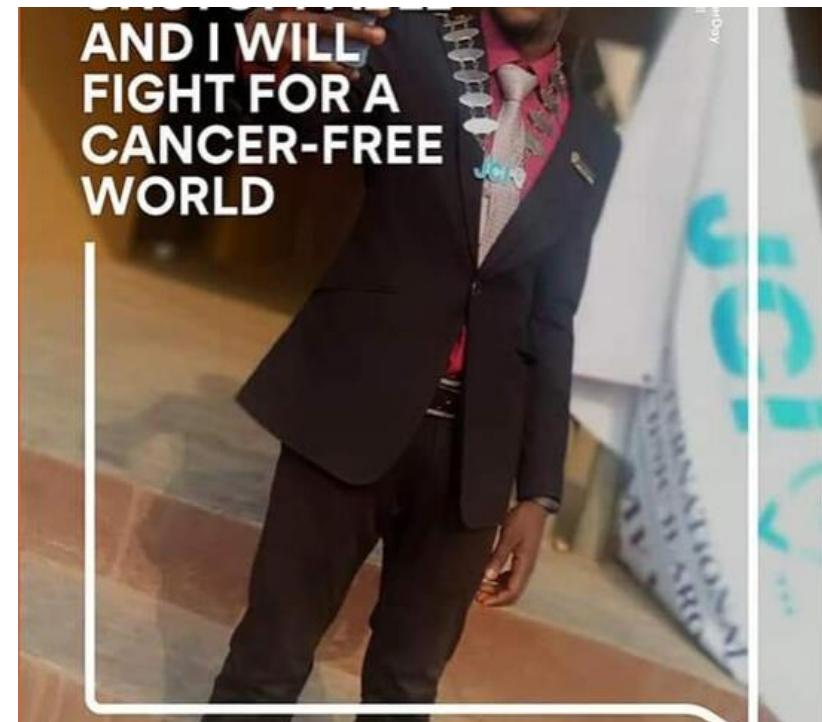

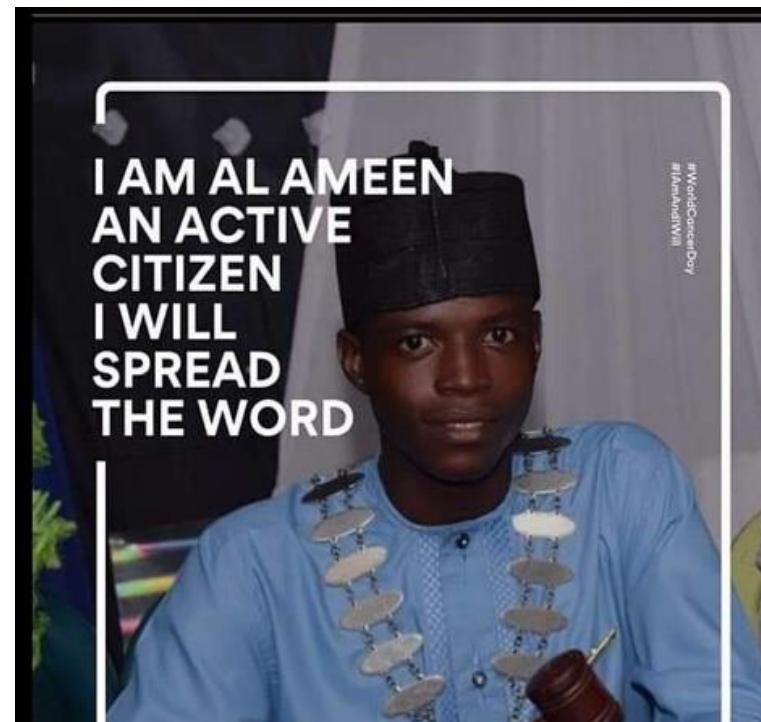

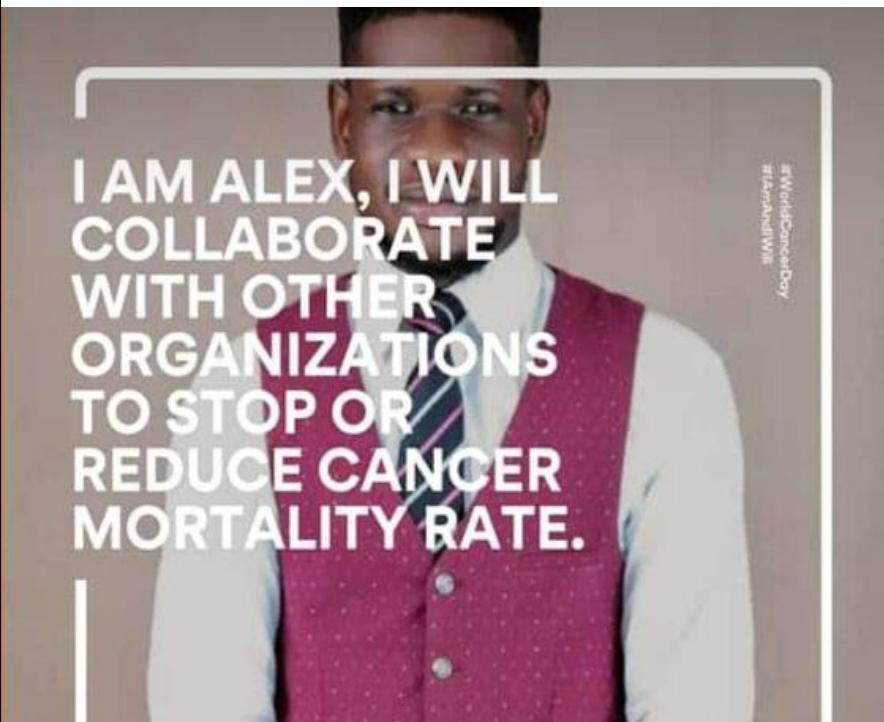

The workshop had a line-up of Experienced and Excellence driven facilitators which includes; JCI Senator Adetola Juyitan, JCI Nigeria Ambassador Olawale Bakare, Ayodeji Akinwande and Participants who gave positive reviews at the end of the workshop.

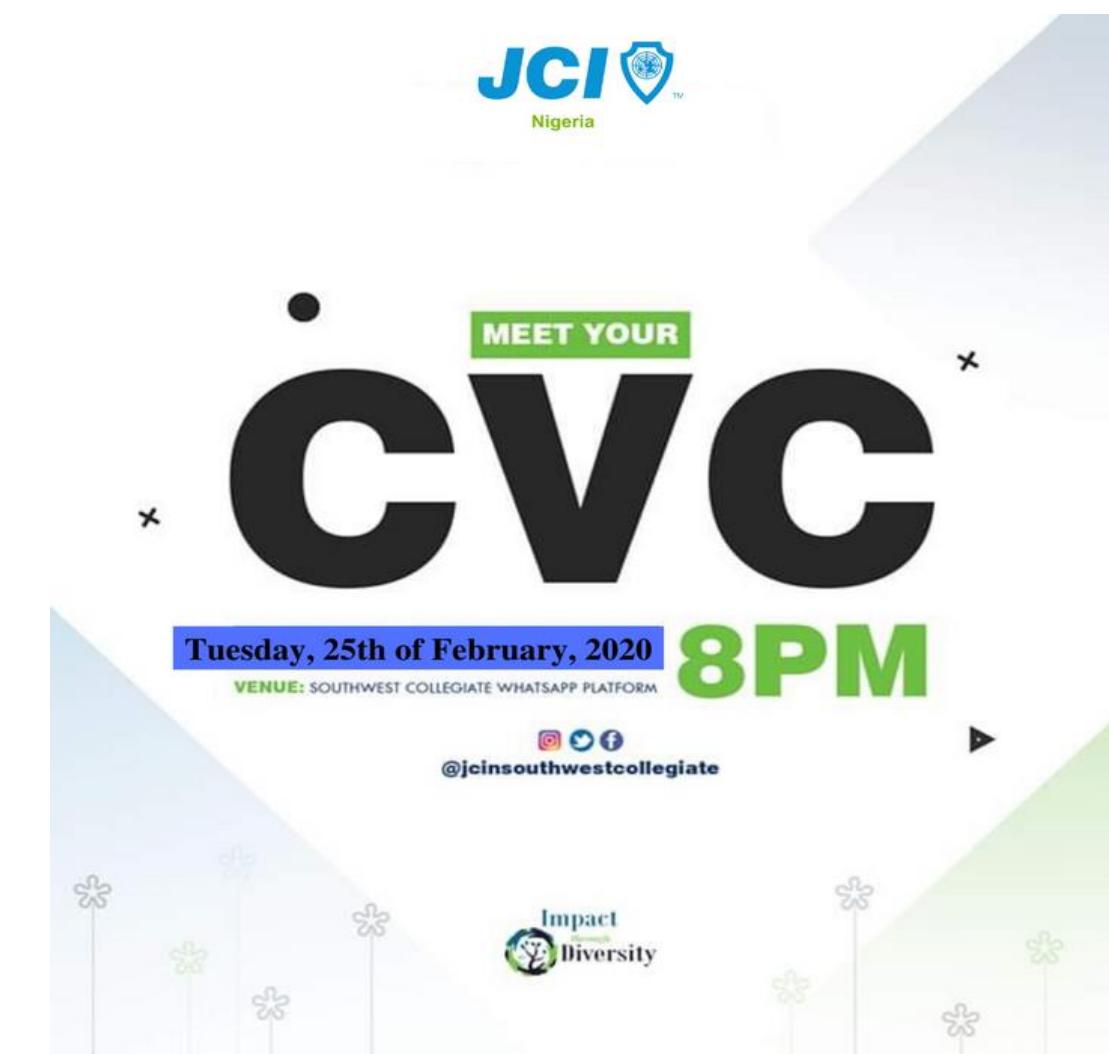

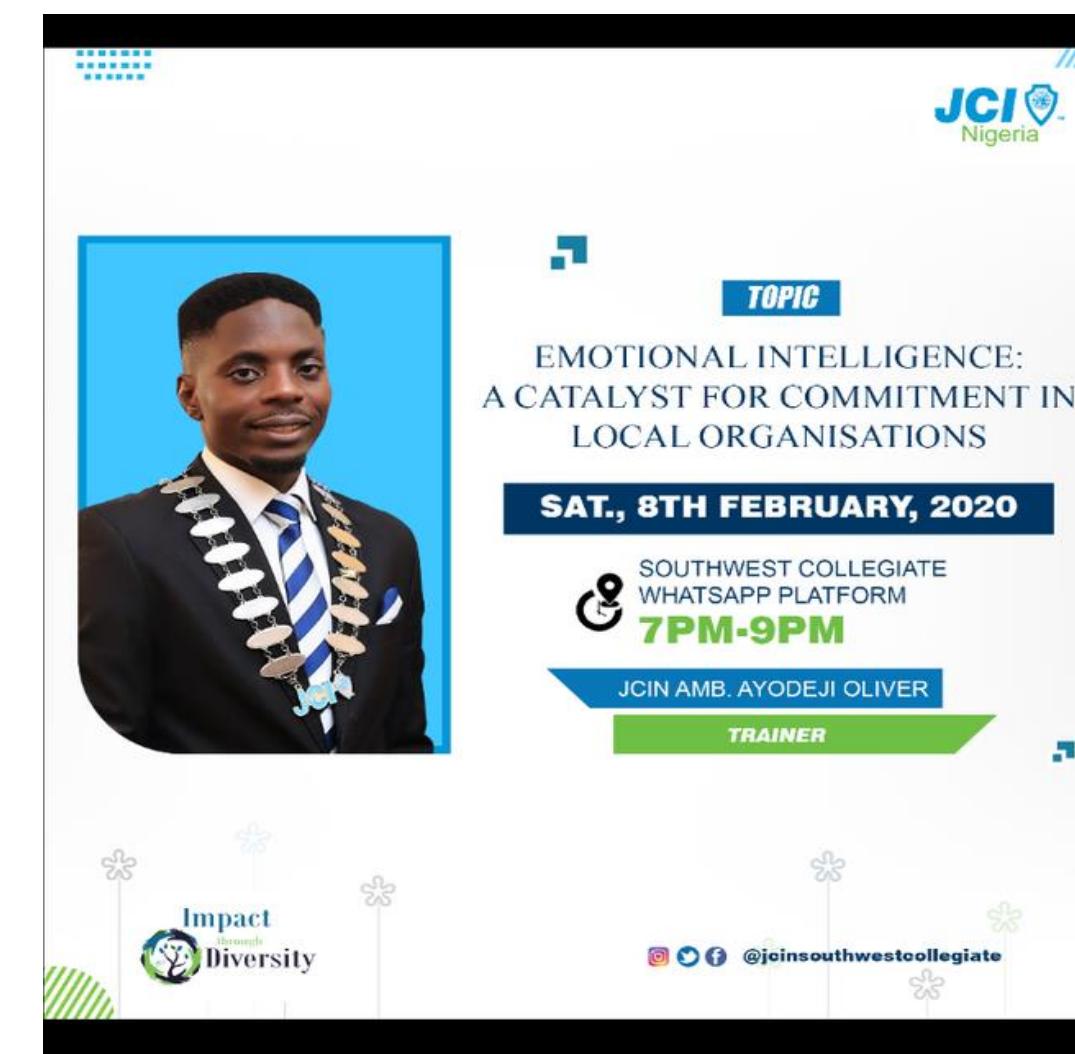

World Cancer Day

We joined the National Organization to raise an awareness on the spread of cancer during the world cancer day (4/2/2020). Members of JCI Nigeria Southwest Collegiate gave it an heightened engagement across all social media platforms.

Members Engagement

We have continued to raise the bar of our engagement in the Southwest collegiate arm of JCI Nigeria by addressing potential challenges and proffering sustainable solutions to them. We have had sessions with the CVC Tagged: Meet your CVC, a session with the JCI Nigeria Chairman Awards and Documentation on the Do's and Don't of Award Filling and also a session with the 2020 President of JCI Rockcity on Emotional Intelligence.

Appreciation

I must continue to commend and appreciate the effort of our distinguished southwest collegiate presidents for enhancing our identity and values.

I appreciate the National Organization under the leadership of JCI Nigeria Ambassador Onyinyechukwu Mbeledogu for the unwavering support, Executive Vice President Adekunle Babatunde Samson and the Interim Executive Secretary for their constant support. I also extend appreciation to individuals and cooperate organizations who invested in the growth of the southwest collegiate structure.

In conclusion, I appreciate the Southwest collegiate team for their hard work and service to the organization.

I look forward to impact more through our diversities

Thanks for making it a worthy journey.
